JUDICIAL PROFILE

Warren J. Granville was appointed to the Superior Court bench in December 1999, following a 20-year career as a prosecutor with the Arizona Attorney General's Office. He is currently assigned to the Criminal Department. Prior to that he served in the Family Court Department. During his tenure as an assistant attorney general, Judge Granville became an expert in legally complex criminal cases involving hazardous waste, commercial bribery, fraud, murder and corruption. Other attorneys in the office often sought him out to share his expertise in evidence, procedure, victims' rights and issues related to securities, wiretaps and grand juries. He was the only prosecutor twice honored as Attorney General Prosecutor of the Year. He first received the award in 1993, and was again honored in 1996. He also was the first assistant attorney general named Distinguished Public Lawyer by the State Bar. He received that honor in 1993. In 1999, he received the Volunteer Public Lawyer of the Year award from the Maricopa County Bar Association for work he did before he joined the Bench.

Judge Granville has been active in the Maricopa County Bar's Volunteer Lawyer Program since 1996. Since 1993 he has been a volunteer coach for a high school mock trial program. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Political Science from Florida State University in 1975. In 1979, he received his law degree from Arizona State University.
